ACCOMMODATION

Everyone's wants, needs and budgets are very different, so we leave it up to individual entrants to chase up their accommodation requirements. If you want accommodation, it is up to you to pre book and pay for it. Camping each night is at a designated location, which you do not have to pre book. Some camping locations are at caravan parks, which will incur their regular "non powered" site fee's, payable on arrival.

We have been contacted by the Echuca Nirebo Motel who are offering a discounted price for Great Escape entrants. 03 54822033. See further details below.

Braidwood will be very cold, so probably worth your while getting a roof over your head if you can. The Royal Mail Hotel has lots of budget prices rooms available: 02 48422488.

If you do not wish to camp on other nights, you can do some internet research to see what might be available to suit your needs and budget requirements. There are a few nights where some motel/hotel accommodation will be available, and a few where there are non.

In the previous newsletter we mentioned that Teresa Carlson and Roz Thompson (nee Smith) were heading on a promotional run around the Great Escape course. We are pleased to say that their trip was extremely successful. Their efforts and awareness campaign will certainly highlight our event as we travel through all the towns on route. Not only did they promote CF and the Great Escape, a few new entrants also came on board as a direct result of their trip. On behalf of the entire Great Escape and CF family, thank you Teresa and Roz for a mighty job well done.

LETTER OF THANKS RECEIVED FROM CF RAFFLE PRIZE WINNER

Each year CF set up a raffle to assist you with your fundraising. Below is a letter we received from the very happy winner from the 2009 raffle.

Dear Sharon,

Please forgive my very late response to the Gold Coast Holiday we took in early April.

I have to admit that the days we spent at the Gold Coast, were some of the best days we can ever remember having.

I have been having some health challenges that I am trying to get on top of, so please accept my sincere apologies for not thanking Cystic Fibrosis for all the good times we had.

I did not manage to contact Scott Draper but that is ok At least I can always say I had the chance to play.

The Apartment pool complex was very good and our balcony on the 19th floor faced the Sea. Simply beautiful.

Also we did not have time to go to one of the Parks, so we passed the tickets to a family who will be visiting later this year, with the proviso that they donate an amount to Cystic Fibrosis.

As again Solvay (now Abbott Products) will be involved with the Great Escape, It gives me many more reasons why I should try a lot harder with the ticket sales. I will also promote the fact that I won it last year.

Lets see what happens.

We very much loved the Apartment we stayed and wanted to thank the person who so generously donated it so we can spend a few days.

The White water world and Dream world visits were fantastic and more than enough to get our fix. Have you ever gone up on the claw when it is raining? Once was enough!!!

Let me just say that not only thousands with Cystic Fibrosis are getting the benefit of CFA, but you also made possible a little well-earned holiday to a family that otherwise might not have been possible.

So on behalf of all the family we say many thanks again for all your assistance and making a little dream come true.

Finally, although I cannot see us winning for the second time , I will have a good time trying. I am attaching a couple of photos for your perusal.

*Kind thanks and regards
The Panopoulos Family*

MAJOR RAFFLE, MAJOR THANKS

The above letter was from the lucky winners of last years major raffle. A very special thanks must go to Steve Farley who kindly donated the amazing prize.
